

Fort Myer Military Community Financial Readiness Challenge

Financial Freedom through Education & Action!

For: All Military Beneficiaries and DoD Civilians

When: Tuesday, April 28, 2009

Where: Spates Community Club

Why Attend? The Garrison Commander and DoD are co-sponsoring a day-long Financial Readiness Challenge aimed at helping you and your family strengthen your financial circumstances and learn important ways to take control of your finances. Some highlights:

- A provocative speech by The Pitbull of Personal Development® - Larry Winget, motivational speaker and author of several best-sellers including, Shut Up, Stop Whining & Get A Life and It's Called Work For A Reason.
- A presentation on the fastest growing crime in the military – identity theft. Learn how to safeguard your personal information and protect your family.
- A fact-filled and entertaining presentation on credit reports – what they are exactly and how to maintain a good one - which can be so important for your military career.
- A practical, hands-on workshop on taking control of your finances including how to use credit wisely and save smart.
- A Q&A panel discussion with experts on foreclosure prevention—learn more about the foreclosure process and what the options are for homeowners facing delinquencies or foreclosure.
- Free, private, One-on-One counseling sessions with Personal Financial Counselors, Military & Family Life Consultants, Credit Counselors and HUD-approved Counselors available! (Have questions on your credit or mortgage statements? Bring them along!)

Doors open at 0900, program from 0945-1600.
